

University and information with Troy not receive credit for courses as a result of state or federal academic merit or other means as a condition of admission. Some courses are complete in one institution but are common to two or more and subject areas,

uses the transfer and understand how course transfer process works.
Students in Service Organizations (SOs) articulation agreements with other agreements with other institutions to determine potential transfer. Students should contact articulation agreements to determine the transfer evaluation the process in various special requirements/regulation that apply to majors.
Additional information on programs, examination transfer credit process can be found at www.troy.edu/catalogs/
